FREEDOM CREDIT UNION AWARDS $6,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

Warminster, PA – (August 18, 2015) Freedom Credit Union awarded three graduating high school students with educational scholarships, $2,000 each, to be used for their university education. Applicants were asked to write an essay based on a founding principal of Freedom Credit Union - “People Helping People”. Freedom received many outstanding applications this year and is pleased to recognize the 2015 recipients:

- Eric Robinson from Palmyra, New Jersey who will attend Villanova University and major in Mechanical Engineering
- Sabrina Otero from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who will attend Gwynedd Mercy University and major in Education
- Kyle Davis from Wyncote, Pennsylvania who will attend Northeastern University and major in Biology

“As a financial institution originally founded to serve teachers and employees of the School District of Philadelphia, Freedom is committed to the value of education, and to helping make post-secondary schooling possible for Members of the Credit Union. I am pleased that Freedom is able to present these young adults with scholarships to support their academic future.” said John F. King, President/CEO of Freedom Credit Union.
