FREEDOM CREDIT UNION AWARDS $6,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

Warminster, PA – (June 26, 2018) Freedom Credit Union presented three area students with educational scholarships. Each winner received $2,000 to be used for educational expenses. Applicants were asked to write an essay based on a founding principal of Freedom Credit Union - "People Helping People". Freedom received many outstanding applications this year and is pleased to recognize the 2018 recipients:

- Alexa Nyx Baldon from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who will attend university of Scranton and major in computer engineering.
- Ashley Renee Eatmon from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who is attending Eastern University and is also majoring in nursing.
- Omar Jamaladdin from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania who is continuing his education at Temple University, with a major in Biology / Pre-Pharmacy.

"We have a long history of serving and supporting educational organizations. Freedom is committed to the value of education, and to helping make post-secondary schooling possible for Members of the Credit Union. I am pleased that Freedom is able to present these young adults with scholarships to support their academic future." said John F. King, President/CEO of Freedom Credit Union.
