FREEDOM CREDIT UNION AWARDS $10,000 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

Warminster, PA – (June 20, 2019) Freedom Credit Union presented five area students with educational scholarships. Each winner received $2,000 to be used for educational expenses. Applicants were asked to write an essay based on a founding principal of Freedom Credit Union - "People Helping People". Freedom received many outstanding applications this year and is pleased to recognize the 2019 recipients:

- Audrey Champagne from Lansdale, Pennsylvania, will be attending LaSalle University and majoring in Speech Pathology.
- Malaysha Clark from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, will be attending East Stroudsburg University and majoring in Biology.
- Nydia C. Fuller from Middletown, Delaware, will continue her education at Walden University and major in Nursing.
- Lauren Sabater from Lansdale, Pennsylvania will be attending Penn State University and majoring in Computer Science.
- Michael P. Wible Jr from Bensalem, Pennsylvania will be attending Temple University majoring in Engineering.

"We have a long history of serving and supporting educational organizations. Freedom is committed to the value of education, and to helping make post-secondary schooling possible for Members of the Credit Union. I am pleased that Freedom is able to present these young adults with scholarships to support their academic future." said John F. King, President/CEO of Freedom Credit Union.
