FREEDOM CREDIT UNION AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS TO LOCAL STUDENTS

Warminster, PA – (May 28, 2020) Freedom Credit Union presented three area students with educational scholarships. Each winner received $2,000 to be used for educational expenses. Applicants were asked to write an essay based on a founding principal of Freedom Credit Union - "People Helping People". Freedom received many outstanding applications this year and is pleased to recognize the 2020 recipients:

- Nya Cherry from Collegeville, PA who will be attending Pennsylvania State University and majoring in Biological Science and Secondary Education.
- Olivia Brown from Cherry Hill, NJ who will be attending Loyola University and majoring in Speech Language Pathology.
- Ron Salvati from Philadelphia, PA who will be attending Montgomery County Community College and majoring in Physical Therapist Assistant.

"We have a long history of serving and supporting educational organizations. Freedom is committed to the value of education, and to helping make post-secondary schooling possible for Members of the Credit Union. I am pleased that Freedom is able to present these young adults with scholarships to support their academic future." said John F. King, President/CEO of Freedom Credit Union.

Congratulation to the winners and thank you to all of the members who entered. We enjoyed your essays and wish you all the best in your academic future.

Due to social distancing guidelines, this year we will not provide picture of the winners.
